3. The Lease between Unit Owner and Tenant shall be subject and subordinate to the By-laws, House Rules and Declaration of the Condominium, and this Consent, including, without limitation, the Board's right to collect rent from Tenant. In the event of any conflict, the Lease shall be deemed amended to be in conformity herewith. No Unit Owner shall permit anything to be done or kept in his Unit or in the Common Elements (including, without limitation, the use of barbecues or grills on the balconies) which may result in the cancellation of insurance on the Building or which would be in violation of any law. Nothing shall be done which will damage the Common Elements.

It shall be the responsibility of the Unit Owner to maintain the containers in good condition, and the drainage tiles and weep holes in operating condition. Such Unit Owner shall pay the cost of any repairs necessary as a result of, or damage caused by, such plantings.

27. Any consent or approval given under these Rules and Regulations may be modified, added to, amended or repealed at any time by resolution of the Board of Managers. Further; any such consent or approval may, in the discretion of the Board of Managers, be conditional in nature.
